

The online edition of the Wood County
MONITOR
is now a subscription.

Why subscribe to the website?

More photos are published than print, all color.
Breaking news happens between print editions.
Support local journalism in your community.

How much does it cost?

The same as the cost of a print subscription.
You can choose to have either print, digital, or both.

Already have a print subscription?

You can sign up using your last name & street address on the mailing label on the front page of your paper.
